Attorneys for Wang Hongjun

Defendant Hongjun Wang, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby submits the following Answer to the Complaint filed by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on November 29, 2012. Except as expressly admitted, Mr. Wang denies the allegations in the Complaint. Mr. Wang notes that on April 11, 2014 in the parallel criminal action¹ pending before Judge Richard J. Leon in the District Court for the District of Columbia, co-defendant Chao Jiang was acquitted of criminal securities fraud under 18 U.S.C. § 1348 relating to CNEP’s September 16, 2009 Prospectus Supplement and Form 8-K. On April 28, 2014 a mistrial was ordered as to all remaining counts. A copy of the docket entries for both the April 11 and April 28, 2014 orders are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

SUMMARY

1. As to Paragraph 1 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang denies the allegations to the extent they relate to his alleged conduct. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remainder of the allegations contained in Paragraph 1, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

2. As to Paragraph 2 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, upon information and belief, that at the date the Complaint was filed, China Northeast Petroleum Holdings Limited (“CNEP”) was engaged in oil exploration, drilling, and production in the People’s Republic of China (“China”). Except as expressly admitted, Mr. Wang denies each and every allegation contained in this paragraph, including – but not limited to – the use of the pejorative adverb “purportedly.”

3. As to Paragraph 3 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits that he served as Chairman of CNEP’s Board of Directors and CNEP’s President and CNEP in January 2009, and that Ju Guizhi (“Ms. Ju”) is one of CNEP’s founders. Mr. Wang admits that he has loaned millions of dollars to CNEP. Mr. Wang denies the remainder of the allegations in Paragraph 3.

4. As to Paragraph 4 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, upon information and belief, that in late 2009 CNEP engaged in two public stock offerings. Mr. Wang further admits that CNEP issued a “registration statement” (the “Registration Statement”) in connection with those offerings, and that he signed the Registration Statement. To the extent Paragraph 4 purports to describe the Registration Statement, Mr. Wang refers the Court to that document for the complete and accurate contents thereof. Mr. Wang denies the remainder of the allegations in Paragraph 4.

5. As to Paragraph 5, Mr. Wang admits, upon information and belief, that CNEP raised approximately $31.9 million in the U.S. capital markets in September and December 2009, and that these funds were deposited into CNEP’s U.S. bank account. Mr. Wang denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 5 to the extent they relate to the alleged conduct of Mr. Wang. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the remainder of Paragraph 5 and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

6. As to Paragraph 6 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits that Mr. Jiang served as CNEP’s Vice President of Corporate Finance and Secretary during 2009. Mr. Wang further admits based on information and belief, that in 2009 Mr. Jiang made two transfers totaling $910,000 from CNEP’s U.S. Bank Account into Mingfu Jiang’s personal bank account. Mr. Wang further admits, based on information and belief, that Sun received $300,000 from CNEP’s U.S. Bank Account. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the remainder of Paragraph 6 and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

7. As to Paragraph 7 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits that Plaintiff purports to seek the stated relief for itself. Mr. Wang denies that Plaintiff is entitled to relief or damages in any amount or of any kind whatsoever.

JURISDICTION

8. Paragraph 8 of the Complaint contains Plaintiff's jurisdictional allegations, to which no response is required. Mr. Wang admits that Plaintiff purports to invoke the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 77t and 77v and 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u and 78aa.

9. Paragraph 9 of the Complaint contains Plaintiff's venue allegations to which no response is required. Mr. Wang admits that Plaintiff purports to lay venue in this Court. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 9, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

10. As to Paragraph 10 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang denies the allegations to the extent they relate to any alleged conduct of Mr. Wang. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 10, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

DEFENDANTS

CNEP

11. As to Paragraph 11 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, upon information and belief, that at the time the Complaint was filed, CNEP was a Nevada corporation with offices located in New York and California, and that CNEP was engaged in oil exploration, drilling, and production in China. Mr. Wang denies the use of the pejorative adverb “purportedly” contained in the second sentence of Paragraph 11.

12. As to Paragraph 12 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, based on information and belief, that on or about June 15, 2009, CNEP began trading on the NYSE Amex LLC, and that on or about July 6, 2012 the NYSE delisted CNEP’s common stock. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the remainder of Paragraph 12, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

13. As to Paragraph 13 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits that on or about December 31, 2009, CNEP stock traded on the NYSE Amex, LLC. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the remainder of Paragraph 13, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

14. As to Paragraph 14 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits that on or about November 27, 2012, CNEP stock was de-listed from the NYSE Amex LLC. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in the remainder of Paragraph 14, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

Individual Defendants

15. The allegations in Paragraph 15 regarding Mr. Wang’s purported control over CNEP state a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Mr. Wang denies each and every allegation contained therein. Mr. Wang also denies the use of Hongjun Wang as any type of pseudonym or alias; it is instead an ordering of Mr. Wang’s true family and given names in the Western style, rather than the Chinese tradition of family name first and the given name second. Mr. Wang admits the remainder of the allegations in Paragraph 15.

16. The allegations in Paragraph 16 regarding Ms. Ju's purported control over CNEP state a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations and therefore denies the same. Mr. Wang admits that Ms. Ju is one of CNEP's founders, is Mr. Wang's mother, and is a Chinese national who resides in China. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remainder of the allegations in Paragraph 16, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

17. As to Paragraph 17 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, based on information and belief, that Mr. Jiang is a Chinese citizen, and that during 2009 Mr. Jiang served as Vice President of Corporate Finance and Secretary of CNEP. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remainder of the allegations in Paragraph 17, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

Relief Defendants

18. The last sentence of Paragraph 18 contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations, and therefore denies the same. As to the remainder of Paragraph 18, Mr. Wang admits that Ms. Sun is his wife, and that she is a Chinese national who at the time the Complaint was filed resided in California. Mr. Wang further admits that since November 2010, Ms. Sun has served as Treasurer/Cashier for CNEP. Except as expressly admitted Mr. Wang denies the allegations in Paragraph 18.

19. The last sentence of Paragraph 19 contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations, and therefore denies the same. Mr. Wang admits, based on information and belief, that Mingfu Jiang is Chao Jiang's father, and that Mingfu Jiang is a Chinese citizen. Mr. Wang lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 19, and on that basis denies each and every allegation contained therein.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. CNEP Raises $31.9 Million in the U.S. Capital Markets

20. As to Paragraph 20 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, based on information and belief, that CNEP stock was listed and began trading on or about June 15, 2009. Mr. Wang further admits, based on information and belief, that CNEP filed a Form S-3 Registration Statement on or about June 29, 2009, which became effective on or about September 9, 2009. Mr. Wang understands and believes that the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 20 purport to describe the Registration Statement, and on that basis Mr. Wang refers the Court to that document for the complete and accurate contents thereof.

21. As to Paragraph 21 of the Complaint, Mr. Wang admits, based on information and belief, that “at various times during 2009 [Mr. Jiang] met with investment bankers to raise capital, appeared at ‘roadshows,’ and made presentations on behalf of CNEP at investor conferences.” Mr. Wang further admits that Mr. Jiang assisted in drafting and reviewing certain of CNEP’s press releases and filings with the SEC, including certain of CNEP’s periodic reports and the Registration Statement. Mr. Wang understands and believes that the allegations contained in the second sentence of Paragraph 21 purport to describe a September 1, 2009 press release issued by CNEP, and on that basis Mr. Wang refers the Court to that document for the complete and accurate contents thereof. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Mr. Wang denies that Plaintiff is entitled to relief or damages of any kind or in any amount whatsoever. Mr. Wang notes that in the parallel criminal action Mr. Jiang's acquittal on the two securities fraud counts relating to the September 8-K and stock offering, together with the contemporaneous transfer of monies back to CNEP, means the SEC cannot prove any outstanding loss entitlement.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

Without assuming any burden he would not otherwise bear, and reserving his right to amend his Answer to assert additional defenses as they become known, Mr. Wang asserts the following affirmative and other defenses:

FIRST DEFENSE

(Failure to State a Claim for Relief)

1. The Complaint, and each and every claim for relief contained therein that is applicable to Mr. Wang, is barred, in whole or in part, on the basis that the Complaint fails to allege facts sufficient to state a claim for relief against Mr. Wang.

SECOND DEFENSE

(Good Faith)

2. The Complaint, and each and every claim for relief contained therein that is applicable to Mr. Wang, is barred, in whole or in part, on the basis that Mr. Wang acted in good faith and upon a reasonable belief that his actions did not violate any of the applicable laws alleged in the Complaint.

THIRD DEFENSE

(Advice of Counsel)

3. The Complaint, and each and every claim for relief contained therein that is applicable to Mr. Wang, is barred, in whole or in part, on the basis that Mr. Wang relied upon advice of counsel.

FOURTH DEFENSE

(Collateral Estoppel)

4. The Complaint, and each and every claim for relief contained therein that is applicable to Mr. Wang, is barred, in whole or in part, on the basis of collateral estoppel.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Mr. Wang prays as follows:

1. That plaintiff take nothing by reason of its complaint, that judgment be rendered in favor of Mr. Wang;
2. That Mr. Wang be awarded his costs of suit incurred in defense of this action; and
3. For such other relief as the Court deems proper.

JURY DEMAND

Mr. Wang hereby demands a trial by jury.
